

Press Statement

Oman Air Holidays and tripsnstay Sign Strategic Agreement to Enrich Oman's Tourism Offer and Expand Choice of Local and International Flight & Hotel Packages

As Oman opens up to tourism, package holidays at the forefront of travel reboot initiatives

Muscat, Oman, XX September 2021 – Oman Air, the national carrier of the Sultanate of Oman, has signed a strategic agreement with tripsnstay, part of the Khimji Ramdas Group, to enhance its offering of local and international package holidays. The agreement follows the recent announcement of Oman's easing of travel restrictions and reopening to vaccinated travellers with a negative PCR test result effective from 1 September 2021.

Eng. Abdulaziz Al Raisi, CEO of Oman Air said, "Both Oman Air and Oman Air Holidays play an essential role in Oman's tourism ecosystem. Connecting guests from international markets to custom holiday packages and tailored stays in Oman is part of our tourism reboot strategy for the country as it reopens to vaccinated travellers. Our strategic agreement with tripsnstay enhances our already expansive inventory of hotels and ancillary products with real-time pricing and product availability. It equally provides locals in Oman with access to competitive flight and hotel packages in destinations across Oman Air's network."

Pankaj Khimji, Director Khimji Ramdas adds, "This partnership is of great pride to the Khimji Ramdas group. Being our national carrier Oman Air and Oman Air holidays is representative of our country's progress and expansion. Oman has been one of the most sought-after fresh destinations in the past years and through this collaboration we can bring Oman further to the forefront."